

CBM Talk on:

How grant assessors evaluate the proposal for fundamental research?

Speaker: Dr. Chong Yee Lee

Date: 23rd July 2019 (Tuesday)

Time: 12.00pm to 2.00pm

Venue: IDK8

CPD: 2 hours

Synopsis

Presented topics include:

What is the meaning of fundamental?

What are MOHE's priority areas?

What are the FRGS's research clusters and domains?

What are the assessor's main concern?

What are the common comments given by assessor to reject a project proposal?

What are the measures of a good quality project proposal? and etc.

Speaker's biography

Dr. Chong Yee Lee graduated with a PhD degree. She is currently the Deputy Director of Institute of Postgraduate Studies and Research, and Head of Center for MBA Studies in Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman (UTAR). She held various managerial positions for 13 years in non-academic industry before joining UTAR as a lecturer. As an academic with the university for 12 years now, she has published journals articles, conference proceedings, conducting workshop and taught research skills to new academic staff and postgraduate students in local and international universities.